

NCCNN Annual Education Event 2024

Thursday 19 September 2024, 8.30am-5pm

Mercure Manchester Piccadilly, Portland Street, Manchester, M1 4PH

8.30-9.30am	Registration Welcome refreshments and networking
9.30-9.40am	Welcome and introduction Catherine Winsor, Director of Services and Support, Bowel Cancer UK
9.40- 11.05am	Session 1: Colorectal disease Potpourri: Updates in screening, research and anal cancer
9.40-10.05am	Updates in screening and Lynch Syndrome Laura Monje-Garcia, Nurse Practitioner and Clinical Research Fellow. Former National Lead Nurse for the Lynch syndrome project
10.05-10.30am	Bowel Cancer UK Research Update Dr Ruby Osborn, Senior Research Interpretation Officer, Bowel Cancer UK
10.30-10.50am	Anal cancer Noreen Chindawi, Anascopist and Anal Cancer Colorectal Nurse Specialist, Homerton Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust
10.50-11.05am	Panel discussion Laura Monje Garcia, Dr Ruby Osborn and Noreen Chindawi
11.05-11.35am	Refreshment break and networking
11.35am- 12.30pm	Session 2: Exploring new ways to improve post-operative outcomes
11.35-11.55am	Prehabilitation Gurjeet Sekhon, Project Lead for Oncology Prehabilitation Service and Jody Dalanno, Prehabilitation Physiotherapist, Homerton Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust

11.55am-12.15pm	Enhanced Recovery After Surgery (ERAS) Nick Browning, Assistant Chief Nursing Officer, Advanced Practice and Advanced Clinical Practitioner, North Bristol NHS Trust
12.15-12.30pm	Panel discussion Gurjeet Sekhon, Jody Dalanno and Nick Browning
12.30-1.30pm	Lunch and networking
1.30- 3.05pm	Session 3: Supporting patients to live well
1.30-2.15pm	Understanding the effects of chemotherapy and radiotherapy Darren Fernandes, Specialist Registrar in Gastroenterology, King's Mill Hospital
2.15-2.50pm	What's next for the patient? Jane Winter, Lead for nurses and AHPs, Wessex Cancer Alliance
2.50 -3.05pm	Panel discussion Darren Fernandes and Jane Winter
3.05-3.35pm	Refreshment break and networking
3.35-4.35pm	Session 4: Managing patients with complex needs
3.35-4.00pm	Advances in complex surgery Filipe Carvalho, Nurse Consultant in Colorectal Disease, Homerton Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust
4.00-4.20pm	Pelvic exenteration: Michael's experience Michael Trotman, Patient as Educator, Bowel Cancer UK and Claire Coughlan, Clinical Lead, Bowel Cancer UK
4.20-4.35pm	Panel discussion Filipe Carvalho, Michael Trotman and Claire Coughlan
4.35-4.50pm	The Gary Logue Colorectal Cancer Nurse Awards
4.50-5pm	Summary and close